

SETNINGSPROESSERING. NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY UNDERVISNINGSMATERIELL FOR AFASIRAMMEDE (NUMA)/ SENTENCE PROCESSING. NEWCASTLE UNIVERSITY TEACHING MATERIAL FOR A PERSON WITH ACQUIRED APHASIA
Name
Purpose:	To improve understanding and production of sentences in a person with acquired aphasia
Short description:	It consists of a tutorial book and two CDs with a total of about 4000 pages of tasks. Original material is evidence-based and prepared by speech therapists at the University of Newcastle
Academic area/skills:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Auditory processing • Reading comprehension
Target group:	Adults
Survey method:	Individual
Standardization:	In order to assess the degree of agreement of what the illustrations depict, the naming of images has been tried out on people with normal language
Adapted/non-adapted to Norwegian conditions:	Norwegian edition
Published:	2012, Norwegian edition
Author:	Julie Morris, Janet Webster, Anne Whitworth and David Howard. The translation of the manual has been done by Camilla Larsen language services
User groups/user qualifications:	Speech therapist