

Name	TOKEN TEST FOR CHILDREN
Purpose:	To assess the receptive understanding of language-impaired children
Short description:	The test consists of 60 questions divided into 5 sub-tests with increasing difficulty. Material consists of 20 square and round pieces in two sizes in different colors. By combining color, shape and size, the child can answer various questions
Academic area/skills:	Receptive understanding
Target group:	3 years to 12,5 years
Survey method:	Individual
Standardization:	American standardization from 1978 on 1304 children aged 3-12,5 years. The raw scores can be converted to age scores
Adapted/non-adapted to Norwegian conditions:	English original edition
Published:	1978
Author:	Frank Disimioni
User groups/user qualifications:	Professionals with knowledge of language pathology