

Name	DEVELOPMENTAL NEUROPSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT (NEPSY-II)
Purpose:	Test for neuropsychological examination of children and adolescents
Short description:	NEPSY-II is a comprehensive neuropsychological examination method that provides a picture of a child's cognitive functioning within the six domains mentioned below
Academic area/skills:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•Attention and executive functions</li> <li>•Language functions</li> <li>•Memory and learning functions</li> <li>•Sensomotor functions</li> <li>•Social perception</li> <li>•Visuospatial functions</li> </ul>
Target group:	3–16 years
Survey method:	Individual
Standardization:	US norms
Adapted/non-adapted to Norwegian conditions:	The Norwegian version of NEPSY-II is a translation and adaptation of the Swedish version. The manual describes the Swedish developmental work. Clinical experts in connection with the translation and adaptation of the Norwegian version were Kirsten Møller-Pedersen, neuropsychologist and specialist in child and youth psychology, as well as Anne-Siri Øyen, PhD, psychologist and specialist in child and youth psychology. Appendix B and C were not translated during the work on the manual, but the Norwegian version can be downloaded her
Published:	2007; 2014 (Norwegian edition)
Author:	Marit Korkman, Ursula Kirk & Sally Kemp
User groups/user qualifications:	Authorized psychologist